We will also be featuring Youth and Adult Jams where you can ask almost any question that you want. There are new class tracks this year including Technology and the OA and Inductions Management. In the afternoon, we will be holding a Pow-Wow as well as some sports competitions. So come on down to this year's QLS and let's play some sports and learn while we're at it. Another bonus to the afternoon competitions, the winning lodge gets an advantage in the competitions at Conclave. So let's put our best foot forward and win some events.

Opening Session

Onward and Upward – As Scouting celebrates its 100th Anniversary, the Order of the Arrow prepares for the same in 2015. Progress of the Lodges and the Sections is a key component celebrating the future.

100 Block Sessions

101: What Do Arrowmen Do All Day? - Which lodge in NE-1A hosts an Arrow of Light Weekend? What are the OA's plans for the 2010 National Jamboree? Come learn about OA programs at the local, section, regional, and national level. Maybe you'll even get an idea for your own lodge!

102: The OA and Technology – Want to improve your website to keep your members in the know? Want to offer online registration for events and understand how to manage it? If so, this session is for you.

103: Intro to Inductions Management – So your Lodge Chief has asked you to help make your next induction weekend the best ever? What do you do? What should you be focusing on? This session will help you begin the process/

200 Block Sessions

201: Reppin' the Troop – Does your Lodge struggle with “non-OA” units in your Council? Troop/Team Representatives are a great way to get more youth active in the Lodge and more adult support.

202: OA LodgeMaster and You – Is your Lodge still using the same methods as Dr. Goodman to keep track of members. In this session, the implementation of LodgeMaster will be explored.

203: Don't Know Much About Elangomats - These are the guys that are going to make the difference to your event and your new members. In this session we will go over recruiting Elangomats and how to train them.

300 Block Sessions

301: The Art of Dance! – Want to learn how to use American Indian dance as a program within your Lodge. Dance ceremonies can be great for District and Council events as well as Cub Scout events.

302: OA Summer Camp Program – Come learn about what other Lodges do at their summer camps to promote the OA. From elections to brotherhood conversions to hours of service, there are a lot of possibilities.

303: How to Pump Up Those New Members – An induction weekend is a time to welcome new members and get some service time. This is your best chance to get these new members excited about being a member of the OA and get them to future events.

Afternoon Activities

Basketball- Good old ball and hoop – nothing but net.

Youth and Adult Jams- An open forum for the youth and adults. A discussion on whatever you want with all the Arrowmen, Lodge, Section, and some National officers. It's a great time to ask those questions you've always had. Towards the end, the youth jam and adult jam will combine to discuss mutual issues.

Pow Wow – Any Arrowmen interested in American Indian activities should come ready.

Closing Session

What's This All Means? - As we finish up a day of training, our closing session and keynote address will send us off with a message and a meaning.
